Dear valued Partner,

We are extremely honoured to inform you that the following companies have joined our organisation as of today:

The Automotive Distribution Network (USA, Canada, Mexico)

- The Network has a turnover of $1.5 billion and is the umbrella organisation for three of the premier groups in the US automotive aftermarket - Parts Plus, Independent Auto Parts of America and Auto Pride.
- Together they have over 300 WD locations that service 1,500+ affiliated auto stores and more than 2,000 affiliated service centres. In addition, these members support Network Products Warehouse, a member-owned warehouse distribution company located in Somerville, Tennessee. This facility is strategically placed to provide unique products and services exclusively for the members of the Automotive Distribution Network.

Auto Nautica Sur (Argentina)

- Auto Nautica Sur (ANS) is one of Argentina's leading autoparts distributors. ANS distributes high quality automotive spare parts from across more than 40 brands. Incorporated in 1969 in Bahia Blanca, ANS focuses on delivering the best value to its customers through four pillars: People, Quality of services, Quality of the offer and Efficient logistical support.

Worldwide Automotive Group (South Africa)

- Established in 1992, WAG has grown to become a premier supplier. It has more than 70 Goldwagen outlets across South Africa and is strategically located in several other countries. With over 15,000 product lines, WAG has established itself as a market leader. In order to maintain a consistent supply of original quality parts, the company controls its own sourcing and shipping operations. WAG, which employs more than 250 people, also enjoys direct supplier agreements with most of the (OE) manufacturers.

SMG group (Egypt)

- SMG is a leading importer and wholesaler of spare parts for all types of vehicles. It has a distribution network of more than 1,000 wholesalers and retailers throughout Egypt, serving them from more than 12 specialised outlets. The company was formed some 45 years ago.

Auto Standard Group (Ukraine)

- ASG has operated successfully in the Ukrainian automotive aftermarket for more than 15 years. ASG is considered to be one of the largest distributors of automotive products in Ukraine. The group has two main offices, in Kyiv and Lviv, and a regional network of warehouses. Dynamic and growing, it has made a priority of applying the most modern management standards, along with state-of-the-art storage and transportation.

Import Oils (Kazakhstan) – joining the organisation of Nexus Otomotiv.

- Import Oils of Kazakhstan has 15 years experience selling well known brands. It operates its own branches in the cities of Astana and Ust-Kamenogorsk, as well as several car services centers in Almaty. Import Oils works with more than 100 dealers over the whole of Kazakhstan.

Shanghai Yuan Tai (China)

- First member of Nexus Automotive International in China, Shanghai Yuan Tai (China) was founded in 1988. It provides a wide range of products from the various N! contracted Suppliers. Yuan Tai also offers a business-to-business e-platform for local fast-fit workshops. The aim of Yuan Tai is to provide quality products for cars, added-value to customers and a platform for employees to perform.

Fong Tat Group (Singapore)

- Fong Tat Group is one of Singapore's leading auto parts traders. Incorporated in 1974, it has established itself as a major importer, exporter and distributor of genuine automotive spare parts and components locally and in the region. Fong Tat distributes a wide range of high quality Japanese, Korean and European-make genuine passenger automotive spare parts and automotive glass.

Every one of the above has an impressive pedigree, I am sure you will agree, and we very much welcome them to our 'community'.

It is achievements like this that are seeing NEXUS Automotive International being recognised more and more as 'global automotive aftermarket entrepreneurs'.

We expect major developments in multiple territories coming very soon, and will be making further consolidated announcements in the coming months.

With my warmest regards,
